

Waikiki

All I want is Ruby, but her Daddy won't leave us alone

All I want is Ruby, without her momma as chaperone

So we found a way around them, to a shed in a garden

We made love with abandon, until the day

Her Daddy took Ruby away

For what we done

In a shed in a garden

We made love with abandon

I flew in with the Jetpack ,to the Venice Biennale

There were a thousand million people ,but the only face I don't see

Is my sweetheart Ruby, I wonder does she ever think about me

I think about Ruby night and day

Since her daddy took Ruby away

For what we done

Why can't he just be happy now

He's got a grandson to care about

I sailed across the ocean, to lay on the beach of Waikiki

There were a thousand million people, but the only face I don't see

Is my sweetheart Ruby, I wonder does she ever think about me

I think about Ruby night and day

Since her daddy took Ruby away

For what we done, in a shed in a garden

We made love with abandon, then her daddy took Ruby away

For what we done, Why can't he just be happy now

He's got a grandson.
